Retirement

Mandatory Retirement Plans

Eligible faculty and staff must elect to participate in one of two retirement options. The Defined Contribution Plan (administered by TIAA) or the State Employees' Retirement System (SERS).

- TIAA requires you to contribute 5% of your gross wages; Penn State contributes 9.29%
- SERS requires you to contribute 8.25% of your gross wages*; Penn State contribution governed by state law

 The contribution rate for Penn State Police is 6.25%*

Retirement Healthcare Savings Plan

Penn State will make monthly contributions to the savings plan for full-time faculty and staff hired on or after January 1, 2010; if eligible upon retirement, the accumulated savings can be used to purchase health insurance and other qualified medical expenses.

- The University remits $144 per month into an account for you each month
- There is NO required contribution from you
- This is a tax-free reimbursement to you for qualified healthcare expenses after retirement

Supplemental Retirement Plans

Penn State employees have the option to contribute more to retirement. You can choose from 403(b) and 457(b) plans offered by TIAA.

- Available regardless of whether you participate in TIAA or SERS for your regular retirement plan
- Annual contribution limit of $19,500 (plus an additional $6,500 if 50 or older), in both 403(b) and 457(b) accounts

Employee Assistance Program (EAP)

The EAP is a confidential program to help resolve personal issues. Information, consultations, and assistance are provided by trained counselors at Health Advocate.

- 100% CONFIDENTIAL
- Five (5) visits per family member, per issue

Tuition Discount

Educational privileges are available to regular full-time faculty and staff members, their spouse, and their children. The grant-in-aid is for 75% of the tuition charge and applies to Penn State resident instruction and continuing education credit courses.
